DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the Acting Field Office Director, Accra, Ghana, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record reflects that the applicant is a native and citizen of Ghana who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(i)(II), for having been unlawfully present in the United States for more than one year and seeking readmission within ten years of his last departure from the United States. The applicant is married to a United States citizen (USC) and is the beneficiary of an approved Petition for Alien Relative (Form I-130). The applicant seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(B)(v) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(v), in order to reside in the United States with his United States citizen spouse and child.

The Acting Field Office Director found that the applicant failed to establish extreme hardship to a qualifying relative, and denied the Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility (Form I-601) accordingly. Decision of the Acting Field Office Director, dated July 30, 2008.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the decision denying the Application for Waiver of Ground of Inadmissibility (Form I-601), is incorrect factually and as a matter of law and that the adjudicator failed to take into account the totality of the circumstances and incorrectly applied both statutory and case law to the applicant's case. See Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal, dated August 22, 2008. Counsel indicated on the Form I-290B that he will submit a brief and/or additional evidence to the AAO within 30 days. On February 22, 2011, the AAO sent a request to counsel to submit a brief and/or additional evidence as indicated. As of the date of this decision, no additional evidence has been received from counsel.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states that the AAO "shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal." In this case, counsel made very general statements and did not provide any specific erroneous conclusion of law or statement of facts as stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1). Inasmuch as the counsel has failed to specifically articulate any erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, counsel has not presented additional evidence in support of the waiver application. Nor has he adequately addressed the grounds stated for denial.

Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361, provides that the burden of proof is on the applicant to establish eligibility for the benefit sought. Here, the applicant has not met that burden. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
