DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the Field Office Director, Ciudad Juarez, Mexico. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be returned for further action consistent with this decision.

The record reflects that the applicant is a 27-year-old native and citizen of Mexico who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(i)(II), for having been unlawfully present in the United States for more than one year and seeking admission within ten years of her last departure from the United States. The applicant is married to a United States citizen (USC) and is the beneficiary of an approved Petition for Alien Relative (Form I-130). The applicant seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(B)(v) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(v), in order to reside in the United States with her USC spouse and children.

The Field Office Director found that the applicant had failed to establish extreme hardship to a qualifying relative and denied the Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility (Form I-601), accordingly. Decision of the Field Office Director, dated March 20, 2009.

The applicant appealed the decision. The record contains only the first page of the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal, which indicates that the applicant submitted a brief or additional evidence in support of the appeal. The AAO is returning the file to the Field Office Director, Ciudad Juarez, Mexico, to locate the second page of the appeal, as well as all evidence submitted with the appeal. Once the record has been supplemented with the missing documentation, the Field Office Director shall return this matter to the AAO for adjudication.

ORDER: The case is returned for appropriate action consistent with this decision.
