IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Travel Document Pursuant to Section 223 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1203.

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Acting Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of the United Kingdom, who seeks to obtain a travel document (reentry permit) under section 223 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1203. The Acting Director denied the application after determining that the application was filed after the applicant had departed the United States. See Acting Director's Decision dated December 11, 2006.

On appeal, the applicant does not dispute the fact that she filed an Application for Travel Document (Form I-131) while residing in Germany. The applicant states that she originally filed a Form I-131 prior to departing the United States and was issued a reentry permit. In addition, the applicant states that she filed the present Form I-131 in order to receive an extension because she resides in Germany with her daughter and son-in-law.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 223.2 states in pertinent part:

(b) Eligibility.

(1) Reentry permit. Except as otherwise provided in this section, an application may be approved if filed by a person who is in the United States at the time of application and is a lawful permanent resident or conditional permanent resident.

The record of proceeding reflects that the applicant was admitted into the United States as a lawful permanent resident on December 1, 2000. The applicant signed a Form I-131 on May 10, 2006, which was subsequently mailed to the Nebraska Service Center and received on June 26, 2006. The documentation in the record of proceedings and a statement by the applicant shows that the applicant had departed the United States prior to the filing of the Form I-131. The Act provides no exception regarding the physical presence requirement at the time of filing a Form I-131. Since the application was not filed until after the applicant had departed the United States, the application may not be approved as a matter of law.

If a lawful permanent resident seeks to reenter after an absence of one year or more, and does not possess a reentry permit, he/she should contact a United States consulate abroad for further information regarding possible options for return to the United States.

Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361, provides that the burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish eligibility for the benefit sought. Here, the applicant has not met that burden. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
