Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center, denied the application. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Cuba who seeks to obtain a travel document (reentry permit) under section 223 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1203. The director denied the application after determining that the applicant was not eligible for a travel document.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b). The record indicates that the director issued the decision on March 23, 2010. The petitioner subsequently forwarded the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, to the AAO in error. An appeal/motion is not properly filed until the proper office, in this case the Nebraska Service Center, receives it. The petitioner resubmitted the appeal to the Nebraska Service Center in accordance with the instructions. The appeal was received by the Nebraska Service Center on May 20, 2010, 58 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. An untimely filed appeal must meet specific requirements to be treated as a motion. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2) requires that a motion to reopen state the new facts to be provided in the reopened proceeding, supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Furthermore, 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3) requires that a motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or U.S. Citizenship and Immigration and Services (USCIS) policy.

Review of the record indicates that the appeal does not meet the requirements of a motion. The applicant states on appeal that he wishes to visit his family.

As the appeal was untimely filed and the applicant has failed to provide any new facts or evidence that support a motion to reopen or reconsider, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed. The application is denied.
