ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant's temporary resident status had been terminated, and he was thus ineligible for adjustment to permanent resident status.

On appeal, the applicant did not contest the basis for the denial. Because it was unclear as to whether he knew the actual basis for termination, he was sent a copy of the notice of intent to terminate, and the notice of termination. However, he failed to respond to those notices.

An alien whose temporary resident status has been terminated under 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(u) is ineligible for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(c)(5).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. The applicant has not addressed the grounds stated for the denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
