IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, Western Service Center is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's status because the applicant failed to submit sufficient evidence of residence in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant provided no evidence, but indicated that his wife, a United States citizen, would file a petition on his behalf. He also referred to having submitted sufficient evidence of having worked "during the qualified period of May 1, 1985 to May 1, 1986," which is actually a requirement under a different section of law pertaining to the special agricultural worker program. In addition, the applicant requested copies of documents from his file. Although his request was complied with seventeen months ago, the applicant has not furnished a brief or evidence, or responded further.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of the applicant's status. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the basis for termination. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
