DISCUSSION: The Application for Class Membership under Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, or Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004, (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements) was denied and the Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to the terms of the CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements was administratively closed by the District Director, Los Angeles. This matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The applicant submitted a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), and a Form I-687 Supplement, CSS/Newman Class Membership Worksheet. The director denied the applicant's Class Membership Application, finding that he failed to establish that he meets the class definition. Pursuant to the denial of the applicant's Class Membership Application, the director administratively closed his Form I-687 application.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that he has continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982. The applicant states that he has been continuously physically present from November 6, 1986 through May 4, 1988. The applicant states that he traveled outside the United States in November 1987 for 15 days. The applicant indicates that he applied through "Amnistia Tardia" in 1997 and took his application to an office in Los Angeles, California.

Under the CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements, if the director finds that an applicant is ineligible for class membership, the director must first issue a notice of intent to deny, which explains any perceived deficiency in the applicant's class member application and provide the applicant 30 days to submit additional written evidence or information to remedy the perceived deficiency. CSS Settlement Agreement paragraph 7 at page 4; Newman Settlement Agreement paragraph 7 at page 7. Once the applicant has had an opportunity to respond to any such notice, if the applicant has not overcome the director's finding then the director must issue a written decision to deny an application for class membership to both counsel and the applicant, with a copy to class counsel. CSS Settlement Agreement paragraph 8 at page 5; Newman Settlement Agreement paragraph 8 at page 7. The notice shall explain the reason for the denial of the application, and notify the applicant of his or her right to seek review of such denial by a special master. Id.

On March 21, 2007, the director issued a Notice of Intent to Deny Class Membership (NOID) to the applicant. The director determined that the applicant is not eligible for CSS/Newman class membership. The applicant was afforded 30 days to respond to the notice. The applicant responded to the NOID with the same rebuttal statement he submitted on appeal. On June 26, 2007, the director issued a Notice of Denial of Class Membership to the applicant. In denying the applicant's Class Membership Application, the director concluded that the applicant failed to establish that he meets the class definition. The director provided instructions for the applicant to appeal the denial to a Special Master appointed under the terms of the CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(p), the AAO has jurisdiction over the denial of a Application for Temporary Resident Status under section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Here, the applicant's Class Membership Application was denied and his Application for Temporary Resident Status was administratively closed. The CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements stipulate that an applicant should seek review of the denial of his Class Membership Application by a Special Master. The director accordingly provided the applicant with instructions to appeal the denial of his Class Membership Application to a Special Master. Therefore, the AAO is without authority to review the denial of the Class Membership Application, and the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
