Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004 (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements), was denied by the Director, New York. That decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant did not establish that he continuously resided in the United States for the duration of the requisite period.

On appeal the applicant stated that he did not receive the notice of intent to deny issued in this case on February 9, 2006 and that the failure to receive it was not his fault. The applicant did not address the basis of the decision of denial, that is, his failure to submit evidence sufficient to demonstrate his continuous residence in the United States during the requisite period.

This office notes that the notice of intent to deny was mailed to the applicant's address of record, but was returned to CIS marked, "RETURN TO SENDER – UNCLAIMED – UNABLE TO FORWARD." This office notes that the applicant is responsible for claiming mail sent to him at his address of record.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not addressed the grounds stated for denial, nor has he presented additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
