IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a.

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. If your appeal was dismissed or rejected, all documents have been returned to the National Benefits Center. You no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case. If your appeal was sustained or remanded for further action, you will be contacted.

Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, Los Angeles, California, is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's status because the applicant had not demonstrated that he had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988. The director noted that the applicant's testimony and the documentation provided contradicted his claim of continuous residence during the requisite period.

On appeal, the applicant states, generally, that the director failed to follow regulations and provisions of the class action settlement agreements pertaining to LIFE Act applications. The applicant does not provide any additional evidence.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for the decision. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated in the termination notice. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
