ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. If your appeal was dismissed or rejected, all documents have been returned to the National Benefits Center. Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, Los Angeles, California, is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's status because the applicant had not demonstrated that he had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988.

It is noted that counsel stated on the Notice of Appeal to the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO), Form I-694, filed May 25, 2008, that an appeal brief will be submitted within 30 days. However, the record does not reflect receipt of an appeal brief. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

On appeal, counsel for the applicant asserts, generally, that the applicant has provided sufficient evidence to establish his continuous residence. Counsel does not submit any additional evidence on appeal.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for the decision. It is noted that the record is devoid of evidence pertaining to the requisite period. On appeal, counsel has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated in the termination notice. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility
