

identifying data deleted to prevent clearly unwarranted
invasion of personal privacy

U.S. Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
Office of Administrative Appeals MS 2090
Washington, DC 20529-2090

U.S. Citizenship
and Immigration Services

PUBLIC COPY

L1

[Redacted]

FILE: [Redacted] MSC 05 132 10606

Office: HOUSTON

Date: OCT 27 2009

IN RE: Applicant: [Redacted]

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

[Redacted]

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. If your appeal was dismissed or rejected, all documents have been returned to the National Benefits Center. You no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case. If your appeal was sustained or remanded for further action, you will be contacted.

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004 (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements), was denied by the Director, Houston. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant submitted a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, and a Form I-687 Supplement, CSS/Newman (LULAC) Class Membership Worksheet. The director denied the application because the applicant did not establish that he continuously resided in the United States for the duration of the requisite period.

On appeal, counsel states the applicant would have attended his interview had he received the scheduled interview notices. The record reflects the notices were sent to the applicant's address of record and to counsel. Counsel argues that although the evidence submitted by the applicant is limited, it covers all years in question and is sufficient to support approval of the application.

An applicant for temporary resident status must establish entry into the United States before January 1, 1982, and continuous residence in the United States in an unlawful status since such date and through the date the application is filed. Section 245A(a)(2) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a(a)(2). The applicant must also establish that he or she has been continuously physically present in the United States since November 6, 1986. Section 245A(a)(3) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a(a)(3). The regulations clarify that the applicant must have been physically present in the United States from November 6, 1986 until the date of filing the application. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(b)(1).

For purposes of establishing residence and physical presence under the CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements, the term "until the date of filing" in 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(b)(1) means until the date the applicant attempted to file a completed Form I-687 application and fee or was caused not to timely file during the original legalization application period of May 5, 1987 to May 4, 1988. CSS Settlement Agreement paragraph 11 at page 6; Newman Settlement Agreement paragraph 11 at page 10. The applicant has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she has resided in the United States for the requisite period, is admissible to the United States under the provisions of section 245A of the Act, and is otherwise eligible for adjustment of status. The inference to be drawn from the documentation provided shall depend on the extent of the documentation, its credibility and amenability to verification. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(d)(5). To meet his or her burden of proof, an applicant must provide evidence of eligibility apart from his or her own testimony, and the sufficiency of all evidence produced by the applicant will be judged according to its probative value and credibility. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(d)(6).

The "preponderance of the evidence" standard requires that the evidence demonstrate that the applicant's claim is "probably true," where the determination of "truth" is made based on the factual circumstances of each individual case. Matter of E-M-, 20 I&N Dec. 77, 79-80 (Comm.

1989). In evaluating the evidence, Matter of E-M- also stated that “[t]ruth is to be determined not by the quantity of evidence alone but by its quality.” Id. at 80. Thus, in adjudicating the application pursuant to the preponderance of the evidence standard, the director must examine each piece of evidence for relevance, probative value, and credibility, both individually and within the context of the totality of the evidence, to determine whether the fact to be proven is probably true.

Even if the director has some doubt as to the truth, if the petitioner submits relevant, probative, and credible evidence that leads the director to believe that the claim is “probably true” or “more likely than not,” the applicant or petitioner has satisfied the standard of proof. See U.S. v. Cardozo-Fonseca, 480 U.S. 421, 431 (1987) (defining “more likely than not” as a greater than 50 percent probability of something occurring). If the director can articulate a material doubt, it is appropriate for the director to request additional evidence or, if that doubt leads the director to believe that the claim is probably not true, to deny the application.

The pertinent evidence in the record is described below.

1. Notarized statements from [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who state they know the applicant resided in the United States since 1982.
2. A notarized statement from [REDACTED] who states she knows the applicant has resided in the United States since 1982.
3. A notarized statement from [REDACTED] who states he knows the applicant has resided in the United States since 1983.

The individuals submitting statements in behalf of the applicant (Items #1 through # 3 above) claim to have known the applicant for a substantial length of time, in this case since 1981. However, their statements are not accompanied by any documentary evidence such as photographs, letters or other documents establishing the affiants’ personal relationships with the applicant in the United States during the 1980s. In view of these substantive shortcomings, the AAO finds that the statements have little probative value. They are not persuasive evidence of the applicant’s continuous unlawful residence in the United States from before January 1, 1982 through the date he attempted to file a Form I-687 or was caused not to timely file during the original filing period from May 5, 1987 ending on May 4, 1988.

The issues in this proceeding are whether the applicant’s failure to attend his scheduled interviews should be excused and whether he has furnished sufficient credible evidence to demonstrate entry into the United States prior to January 1, 1982, and continuous residence during the requisite period. As interview notices were sent to the applicant at his address of record and to counsel, his failure to appear for his interview shall not be excused.

The evidence must be evaluated not by the quantity of evidence alone but by its quality. Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(d)(5), the inference to be drawn from the documentation provided shall depend on the extent of the documentation, its credibility, and its amenability to verification. Given the absence of credible supporting documentation, the applicant has failed to meet his burden of proof and failed to establish continuous residence in an unlawful status in the United States during the requisite period. The applicant is, therefore, ineligible for temporary resident status under section 245A of the Act for this additional reason. The application was correctly denied for reasons which have not been overcome on appeal. Consequently, the director's decision to deny the application is affirmed.

In removal proceedings held "in absentia" on November 20, 1998, an Immigration Judge in Harlingen, Texas, ordered the applicant deported to Mexico. It is further noted that the record contains an outstanding Form I-200, Warrant of Arrest of Alien, dated June 1, 1999, issued by the Assistant District Director for Investigations Deportation in Houston, Texas, ordering apprehension and deportation of the applicant. On June 3, 1999, the applicant was deported to Mexico.

The record contains a Form I-860, Notice and Order of Expedited Removal, reflecting that on July 1, 2003, the applicant falsely represented himself to be a United States citizen to gain admission into the United States from Mexico. An Immigration Inspector verified his removal from this country at Laredo, Texas, on July 1, 2003. Beyond the decision of the director, the applicant is ineligible for temporary resident status due to his inadmissibility for his misrepresentations under sections 212(a)(6)(C)(i) and (ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Consequently, the director's decision is affirmed for this additional reason.

The applicant's Federal Bureau of Investigation fingerprint results report shows that on January 5, 2002, he was arrested under the name [REDACTED] by the Janesville Police Department in Wisconsin, for "OWI 1st offense." However, the final court disposition of this arrest is not included in the record of proceeding.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.