DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004 (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements), was denied by the Director, Lee's Summit. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant submitted a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), and a Form I-687 Supplement, CSS/Newman Class Membership Worksheet. The director denied the application, finding that the applicant had not provided dispositions or evidence of purged records for all criminal charges against him. The director also determined that the applicant had not provided credible evidence to establish that he had entered the United States prior to January 1, 1982, and thereafter continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status for the duration of the requisite period.

On appeal the applicant states that he believes he is eligible for temporary resident status under section 245A of the Act and that the denial was erroneous. The applicant also states that he cannot state the specific legal reasons for his appeal because he has not received a copy of his record. On the Form I-694, the applicant indicated that a written brief would be submitted within 30 days of receipt of his complete file. The applicant requested a copy of the record of proceedings under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). The record reflects that the FOIA request was closed on July 10, 2009. (NRC2009029828). No additional evidence or brief has been received into the record. Accordingly, a decision will be rendered based on the evidence of record.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. It is evident from the record that the director considered all of the evidence submitted with the applicant's I-687 application. On appeal, the applicant provided no new evidence or an explanation to overcome the reasons for denial of his Form I-687 application.

An applicant applying for adjustment of status under this part has the burden of proving by a preponderance of evidence that he or she is eligible for adjustment of status under section 245a of the Act. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(d)(5). A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence and has not addressed the grounds stated in the director's denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
