Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be dismissed.

In a decision dated February 19, 1992, the director denied the application for Special Agricultural Worker Group 2 status because the applicant failed to establish the performance of at least 90 man-days of qualifying agricultural employment during the 12-month period ending on May 1, 1986. This determination was based on adverse information regarding the applicant's claim of employment for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

The applicant appealed the director's decision and the AAO remanded pending the applicant's receipt of the record of proceedings. The record indicates that the applicant was sent a complete copy of the record of proceedings on March 15, 2007. [REDACTED] The applicant has not submitted any additional evidence or information in support of his application or responded to the issues raised in the notice of decision.

In order to be eligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker, an alien must have engaged in qualifying agricultural employment for at least 90 man-days during the twelve-month period ending May 1, 1986, and must be otherwise admissible under section 210(c) of the Act and not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(d). 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(a). An applicant has the burden of proving the above by a preponderance of the evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(b).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The record reflects that the director mailed a courtesy copy of the decision to the applicant at his last known address. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
