ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. The file has been returned to the National Benefits Center. If your appeal was sustained, or if the matter was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, Houston, Texas, is before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status on April 24, 2009, because the applicant had failed to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that he had resided in the United States in an unlawful residence throughout the requisite period.

The applicant, through counsel, filed an appeal from that decision on May 21, 2009. On appeal, counsel provides a brief statement.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the record reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented any relevant new evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

It is noted that an Immigration Judge (IJ) in Dallas, Texas, ordered the applicant be deported to Honduras on October 16, 1990 (alien registration number [REDACTED] relates). That order remains outstanding.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 245a.2(d)(5) of the Act.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
