IN RE: Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. If your appeal was dismissed or rejected, all documents have been returned to the National Benefits Center. You no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case. If your appeal was sustained or remanded for further action, you will be contacted.

Elizabeth McCormack

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Los Angeles, terminated the applicant's temporary resident status. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that he entered the United States prior to January 1, 1982, and maintained continuous residence in the country throughout the requisite period. The director noted the inconsistencies in the record regarding the applicant's residence and employment history in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant indicated on the Form I-694, Notice of Appeal of Decision under Section 210 or 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, that he would be submitting a brief within 30 days of the notice. The appeal is dated June 1, 2008. To date, the applicant has not filed any brief or evidence in support of his appeal.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the director's decision reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of the applicant's temporary resident status. The applicant's statements on appeal fail to overcome the basis for the termination. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
