Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, or Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004, (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements) was denied by the director of the New York office. The Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) summarily dismissed the applicant's appeal. The matter is now before the AAO on a motion to reconsider. The AAO will reject the motion.

The applicant filed a Form I-694, Notice of Appeal to the AAO. On September 10, 2009, the appeal was summarily dismissed by the AAO, after the applicant failed to address the basis for the denial, and failed to submit a brief or any additional evidence.¹ The applicant has filed a motion to reconsider, currently before the AAO.²

Although motions to reopen a proceeding or reconsider a decision shall not be considered under Section 245A of the Act, the AAO may sua sponte reopen and reconsider any adverse decision.³ However, the applicant has not submitted any additional evidence or legal arguments in his motion to reconsider. Therefore, the AAO finds that the record in this case does not warrant a reopening sua sponte.

Accordingly, the motion to reconsider will be rejected and the previous decision of the AAO will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The motion to reconsider is rejected. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.

¹ The applicant has attached a copy of a December 9, 2009 sworn statement, given to an officer from United States Customs and Border Protection (USCBP) at JFK airport, at which time the applicant withdrew his application for parole into the United States and returned to Pakistan. In the statement the applicant asserts that he did not receive a copy of the AAO's decision. However, the AAO notes that its decision was forwarded to the applicant's address on file and was not returned by the postal service.

² Although the motion to reconsider states that a brief is attached, the applicant has not submitted a brief with his motion.

³ The AAO's decision dismissing the appeal specifically advises the applicant on the cover page that "...you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case."
