Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application for Group 2 status, finding the applicant failed to establish the performance of at least 90 man-days of qualifying agricultural employment during the 12-month period ending on May 1, 1986.

On appeal, the applicant indicated that he would submit a full statement of the reasons for the appeal after he received a copy of his record of proceeding. The applicant submitted several additional declarations on appeal. The declarations do not overcome the adverse information obtained by the Service.

The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request was processed on July 1, 2009 (NRC2008047849). The applicant has not submitted any further documentation into the record or responded to the issues raised in the notice of decision.

In order to be eligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker, an alien must have engaged in qualifying agricultural employment for at least 90 man-days during the twelve-month period ending May 1, 1986, and must be otherwise admissible under section 210(c) of the Act and not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(d). 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(a). An applicant has the burden of proving the above by a preponderance of the evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(b).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The record reflects that the director set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
