Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status was denied by the Director, West Palm Beach, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant had not demonstrated that she had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988.

On appeal, the applicant states that she met her burden of proof and indicates that she would submit a brief and/or additional evidence within 30 days of receipt of a copy of the record of proceedings. Her request for a copy of the record of proceedings was processed by the USCIS FOIA Unit on March 24, 2010.<sup>1</sup> More than five months have lapsed since the request was processed and nothing more has been submitted for the record in support of the appeal.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has she addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
