IN RE: Applicant:

[REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

[REDACTED]

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. If your appeal was dismissed or rejected, all documents have been returned to the National Benefits Center. You no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case. If your appeal was sustained or remanded for further action, you will be contacted.

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The director of the Houston office terminated the temporary resident status of the applicant, pursuant to the terms of the CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements, finding the applicant to be ineligible for temporary resident status based on both a lack of documentation and inconsistent documentation in the record of proceedings. The appeal is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The AAO agrees with the director that the applicant has not provided a reasonable explanation for inconsistencies in the record regarding the dates he resided at particular locations in the United States during the requisite statutory period. Counsel does not state the basis for the appeal, nor has counsel submitted a brief or any additional evidence on appeal.<sup>1</sup>

As stated in 8 C.F.R. §103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of the applicant's temporary resident status. On appeal, counsel for the applicant has not stated a basis for appeal, has not addressed the grounds stated for termination, and has not presented additional evidence relevant to the grounds for termination. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
