IN RE: Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application to Adjust Status from Temporary to Permanent Resident Status pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application to adjust to permanent resident status pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a (Act) was denied by the Director of the Texas Service Center and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director denied the application, finding that the applicant was ineligible for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status because he no longer held temporary resident status.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that he had not heard from the Service until he received a notice of termination.

If an appeal is filed from within the United States, it must be received by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) within 30 days after service of the Notice of Denial, and an appeal received after the 30-day period has tolled will not be accepted. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1). The 30-day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Denial is mailed. Id.

The director issued the Notice of Denial on April 24, 2012 and mailed it to the applicant's address of record. The appeal was received by CIS on June 1, 2012, more than 33 days later. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
