ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Ron Rosenberg
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application to adjust to permanent resident status pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a was denied by the director of the Los Angeles Field Office, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application, finding that the applicant was no longer eligible for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status because his temporary resident status had been terminated.

On appeal, the applicant indicates that he would submit a brief within 30 calendar days of filing the instant appeal. Approximately two months have lapsed since the applicant filed his appeal and nothing more has been submitted for the record.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
