Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Interim District Director, Houston, Texas, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The district director denied the application because the applicant had not demonstrated that he had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988. This decision was based on the district director's determination that the applicant had exceeded the forty-five (45) day limit for single absences from the United States during this period, as set forth in 8 C.F.R. § 245a.15(c)(1).

In response to the Notice of Decision, counsel for the applicant submitted a Form I-290B Notice of Appeal requesting a copy of the record of proceedings under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) relating to the application for adjustment to permanent resident status under the LIFE Act. On January 5, 2005, counsel's FOIA request was complied with and counsel was accorded 30 days in which to respond with any additional documents or statement. As of this date, however, no further documentation or statement from counsel or the applicant has been submitted into the record of proceedings.

An applicant for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act must establish that before October 1, 2000, he or she filed a written claim with the Attorney General for class membership in any of the following legalization class-action lawsuits: Catholic Social Services, Inc. v. Meese, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), League of United Latin American Citizens v. INS, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), or Zambrano v. INS, vacated sub nom. Immigration and Naturalization Service v. Zambrano, 509 U.S. 918 (1993). See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.10.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
