

U.S. Citizenship
and Immigration
Services

PUBLIC COPY

identifying data deleted to prevent clearly unwarranted
invasion of personal privacy

42

FILE: [REDACTED]
XPS-92-025-0021

Office: Texas Service Center

Date: MAR 14 2007

IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Adjustment from Temporary to Permanent Resident Status under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status in the legalization program was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to report for fingerprinting. The applicant appealed, the director reopened the matter, and the applicant was fingerprinted. The director then denied the application because the applicant failed to demonstrate the required knowledge of United States history and government, and the ability to write in the English language, and failed to provide criminal records. The applicant has not responded to the final notice of denial.

Any alien who has been lawfully admitted for temporary resident status may apply for adjustment of status if the alien (A) can demonstrate that he or she meets the requirements of section 312 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (relating to minimal understanding of ordinary English and a knowledge and understanding of the history and government of the United States); or, (B) can demonstrate he or she is satisfactorily pursuing a course of study recognized by the Attorney General to achieve such an understanding of English and such a knowledge and understanding of the history and government of the United States. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(b)(4).

On her application, the applicant indicated that she would comply with the history, government and English language requirements by satisfactorily pursuing a course of study recognized by the Attorney General. Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 245a.1(s), "satisfactorily pursuing" means:

(1) An applicant for permanent resident status has attended a recognized program for at least 40 hours of a minimum 60-hour course as appropriate for his or her ability level, and is demonstrating progress according to the performance standards of the English/citizenship course prescribed by the recognized program in which he or she is enrolled (as long as enrollment occurred on or after May 1, 1987, course standards include attainment of particular functional skills related to communicative ability, subject matter knowledge, and English language competency, and attainment of these skills is measured either by successful completion of learning objectives appropriate to the applicant's ability level, or attainment of a determined score on a test or tests, or both of these); or,

(2) An applicant presents a high school diploma or general educational development diploma (GED) from a school in the United States. A GED gained in a language other than English is acceptable only if a GED English proficiency test has been passed. (The curriculum for both the high school diploma and the GED must have included at least 40 hours of instruction in English and U.S. history and government); or,

(3) An applicant has attended for a period of one academic year (or the equivalent thereof according to the standards of the learning institution), a state recognized, accredited learning institution in the United States and that institution certifies such attendance (as long as the curriculum included at least 40 hours of instruction in English and U.S. history and government); or,

(4) An applicant has attended courses conducted by employers, social, community, or private groups certified (retroactively, if necessary, as long as enrollment occurred on or after May 1, 1987, and the curriculum included at least 40 hours of instruction in English and U.S.

history and government) by the district director or the Director of the Outreach Program under Sec. 245a.3(b)(5)(i)(D) of this chapter; or,

(5) An applicant attests to having completed at least 40 hours of individual study in English and U.S. history and government and passes the proficiency test for legalization, called the IRCA Test for Permanent Residency, indicating that the applicant is able to read and understand minimal functional English within the context of the history and government of the United States. Such test may be given by INS, as well as, State Departments of Education (SDEs) (and their accredited educational agencies) and Qualified Designated Entities in good-standing (QDEs) upon agreement with and authorization by INS.

To satisfy the English language and basic citizenship skills requirements under the "satisfactorily pursuing" standard as defined at sec. 245a.1(s) of this chapter the applicant must submit evidence of such satisfactory pursuit in the form of a "Certificate of Satisfactory Pursuit" (Form I - 699) issued by the designated school or program official attesting to the applicant's satisfactory pursuit of the course of study as defined at sec. 245a.1(s) (1) and (4) of this chapter; or a high school diploma or general educational development diploma (GED) under sec. 245a.1(s)(2) of this chapter; or certification on letterhead stationery from a state recognized, accredited learning institution under sec. 245a.1(s)(3) of this chapter; or evidence of having passed the IRCA Test for Permanent Residency under sec. 245a.1(s)(5) of this chapter. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(b)(4)(iv).

The applicant has not submitted Form I-699, Certificate of Satisfactory Pursuit, or a high school or GED diploma, or proof of attendance for one academic year at a state recognized learning institution, or evidence of having passed the IRCA Test for Permanent Residency. As such, the applicant has not demonstrated that she "satisfactorily pursued" a course of study recognized by the Attorney General.

An applicant may demonstrate that the section 312 requirements have been met by speaking and understanding English during the course of the permanent residence interview, or by passing a standardized section 312 test given in the English language by the Legalization Assistance Board with the Educational Testing Service or the California State Department of Education with the Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(b)(4)(iii).

The applicant did not check the block on the application to indicate that she wishes to demonstrate her knowledge and ability in history, government and the English language by undergoing a test at an interview for permanent residence. Nor has she provided proof of having passed a standardized section 312 test. Therefore, the applicant has not shown that she meets the section 312 requirements or that she satisfactorily pursued an approved course. As such, she is ineligible for permanent residence within the legalization program on this basis.

The director also denied the application because the applicant had not provided arrest reports and final court dispositions. The applicant was arrested for Shoplifting on July 22, 1989 and for Theft on December 27, 1990 by the Houston Police Department.

An alien who has been convicted of a felony or three or more misdemeanors in the United States is ineligible for adjustment to permanent resident status. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(c)(1).

An alien is inadmissible if he has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude (other than a purely political offense), or if he admits having committed such crime, or if he admits committing an act which constitutes the essential elements of such crime. Section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Act, formerly section 212(a)(9) of the Act.

Declarations by an applicant that he has not had a criminal record are subject to a verification of facts by the Service. The applicant must agree to fully cooperate in the verification process. Failure to assist the Service in verifying information necessary for the adjudication of the application may result in a negative determination. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(k)(5).

The applicant has not submitted the requested arrest and court records. It is concluded that the applicant has failed to provide documents necessary for determining the number of misdemeanor or felony convictions that she has, if any, and whether they relate to crimes involving moral turpitude. Therefore, the appeal must be dismissed on that basis as well.

The applicant has not demonstrated a knowledge of history and government of the United States, and the ability to write in the English language. By not providing the requested criminal records, she has failed to establish her eligibility, and her admissibility to the United States. She is, therefore, not eligible for permanent resident status within the legalization program.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.