INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Denver, Colorado, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The district director denied the application because the applicant had not demonstrated that he had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status from before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988. Section 1104(c)(2)(B) of the LIFE Act; 8 C.F.R. § 245a.11(b).

On appeal, counsel asserts that the applicant provided sufficient evidence to establish his continuous residency in the United States. Counsel indicated on the Form I-290B that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted within 30 days of filing the appeal. As of the date of this decision, however, more than 31 months after the appeal was filed, no further documentation has been received by the AAO. However, as the appeal was untimely filed, this issue is moot.

An affected party filing from within the United States has 30 days from the date of an adverse decision to file an appeal. An appeal received after the 30-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30-day period for submitting an appeal begins three days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1).

The record reflects that the director sent her decision of December 10, 2004 to the applicant and counsel at their addresses of record in the United States. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) received the appeal 34 days later on January 13, 2005. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
