INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, St. Paul, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The district director denied the application because the applicant failed to demonstrate that he entered the United States on or before January 1, 1982, as required by section 1104(c)(2)(A) of the LIFE Act. The director also determined that based on numerous misrepresentations, the applicant was inadmissible pursuant to Section 212(a)(6)(C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

On appeal, dated July 7, 2006, the applicant requested 45 days to submit a brief and/or evidence to the AAO. In a declaration, dated July 16, 2006, the applicant requested that the AAO reconsider his application and provided copies of previously submitted documentation. The applicant described his work as a pastor of a local church and stated that he would love to stay and continue his work.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not specifically addressed the basis for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
