Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Dallas, Texas, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The district director concluded that the applicant had been convicted of a felony in the United States, and accordingly, denied the application.

On appeal, counsel acknowledged the applicant's felony conviction, but asserted that the applicant "expects it to be reduced at a minimum to a misdemeanor." Counsel indicated that a brief and/or evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. However, 22 months later, no additional correspondence has been presented by either counsel or the applicant.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
