Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Field Office Director (Director) in Fresno, California. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director denied the application on the ground that the applicant had failed to establish that she resided in the United States in a continuous unlawful status from before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988, as required under section 1104(c)(2)(B) of the LIFE Act.

As provided in the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i), an appeal together with the fee specified in 8 C.F.R. § 103.7 must be filed “with the office where the unfavorable decision was made” within 30 days of the date the decision was served. Three additional days are allowed for an appeal if the notice of decision was mailed to the applicant. If the last day of the appeal period falls on a weekend or a holiday, the deadline is extended until the next working day. See 8.C.F.R. § 1.1 (h).

The decision by the Fresno, California Field Office was issued on March 11, 2008 and mailed to the applicant’s address of record. Under the regulations, therefore, the filing deadline for an appeal was Monday, April 14, 2008. As specified in the regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7), a properly prepared document is filed on the date it is received by Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS).

An application or petition received in a [CIS] office shall be stamped to show the time and date of actual receipt and . . . shall be regarded as properly filed when so stamped, if it is signed and executed and the required filing fee is attached or a waiver of the filing fee is granted.

The applicant’s appeal ( Form I-290B) bears a receipt stamp showing that it was received by the Fresno, California Field Office on April 17, 2008. That was 3 days after the deadline for filing an appeal. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(1) provides that “[a]n appeal which is not filed within the time allowed must be rejected as improperly filed.”

Based on the applicant’s failure to file a timely appeal, the appeal will be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
