Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Director, New York, New York, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant had not demonstrated that he had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988 as required by section 1104(c)(2)(B) of the LIFE Act.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the director failed to apply the proper evidentiary standard in denying the application. Counsel requests a copy of the record of proceedings and indicates a brief would be forthcoming within thirty days of compliance with this request.

The record shows that United States and Citizenship and Immigration Services or USCIS (formerly the Immigration and Naturalization Service or the Service) complied with counsel's request with Control Number NRC2008003707 and mailed a copy of the record to counsel on May 8, 2009.

However, as of the date of this decision, neither the applicant nor counsel has submitted a statement, brief, or evidence to supplement the appeal. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

An applicant for permanent resident status must establish entry into the United States before January 1, 1982 and continuous residence in the United States in an unlawful status since such date and through May 4, 1988. Section 1104(c)(2)(B) of the LIFE Act and 8 C.F.R. § 245a.11(b).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. Neither the applicant nor counsel specifically addressed the reason stated for denial and neither party has provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
