Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the District Director, New Orleans, Louisiana, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director concluded the documentation submitted did not satisfy the applicant's burden of proof of having performed qualifying agricultural employment.

Whenever an application for special agricultural worker status is denied or the status of a lawful temporary resident is terminated, the alien shall be given written notice setting forth the specific reasons for the denial on Form I-692, Notice of Denial. Form I-692 shall also contain advice to the applicant that he or she may appeal the decision and that such appeal must be taken within 30 days following the service of the notification of decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(i). An appeal received after the thirty (30) day period has tolled will not be accepted for processing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv). Form I-694, Notice of Appeal, shall be used to file the appeal and must be accompanied by the appropriate fee. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(ii). Whenever a person has the right to or is required to do some act within the prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The director issued the Notice of Decision on January 26, 1989, and sent it to the applicant's address of record via certified mail. The appeal was not received until August 31, 1990. Although the applicant claims to have filed an earlier appeal, there is no evidence of that. The appeal was untimely filed and, therefore, must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
