DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish the performance of at least 90 man-days of qualifying agricultural employment during the eligibility period. This decision was based on adverse information relating to the applicant's claim of employment for [REDACTED]

On appeal, the applicant requested a copy of the record of proceedings and stated that a brief will be forthcoming within thirty days of compliance with this request.

The record shows that the Immigration and Naturalization Service or the Service (now Citizenship and Immigration Services or CIS) complied with the applicant's request for a copy of the record on June 15, 1998. However, as of the date of this decision, the applicant has failed to submit a statement, brief, or evidence in support of his appeal. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

Although a Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney of Representative (Form G-28) has been submitted, the individual is not authorized under either 8 C.F.R. § 292.1 or 8 C.F.R. § 292.2 to represent the applicant. Therefore, this decision will be furnished to the applicant only.

In order to be eligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker, an alien must have engaged in qualifying agricultural employment for at least 90 man-days during the twelve-month period ending May 1, 1986, and must be otherwise admissible under section 210(c) of the Act and not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(d). 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(a). An applicant has the burden of proving the above by a preponderance of the evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(b).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
