DISCUSSION: The Western Service Center Director denied the application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The matter will be remanded to the Director, California Service Center for further consideration and action.

The director denied the application for lack of prosecution. The director indicated that the applicant had failed to appear for a scheduled interview.

On appeal, the applicant states that he had not received an interview notice.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 210.2(c)(2)(iv) provides that applicants are required to appear for an interview.

In the absence of evidence that the Service sent an interview notice to the applicant, the Service shall schedule an interview and provide the applicant with written notice of the interview. Upon completion of an interview, the director shall issue a new decision on the application. Should the decision be adverse, it shall be certified to this office for review.

ORDER: The matter is remanded for appropriate action and decision consistent with the foregoing.
