IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application because the applicant had been convicted of a felony committed in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant submits a statement.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2, provide that an applicant who is a national of a foreign state is eligible for TPS only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national of a state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Attorney General may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 244.4; and
- (f)
  - (1) Registers for Temporary Protected Status during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or
  - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation if at the time of the initial registration period:
    - (i) The applicant is a nonimmigrant or has been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;
    - (ii) The applicant has an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal which is pending or subject to further review or appeal;
    - (iii) The applicant is a parolee or has a pending request for reparole; or
    - (iv) The applicant is a spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

An alien shall not be eligible for temporary protected status under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

8 C.F.R. § 244.1 defines "felony" and "misdemeanor:"

Felony means a crime committed in the United States, punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, except: When the offense is defined by the State as a misdemeanor and the sentence actually imposed is one year or less regardless of the term such alien actually served. Under this exception for purposes of section 244 of the Act, the crime shall be treated as a misdemeanor.

Misdemeanor means a crime committed in the United States, either

- (1) Punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or
- (2) A crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section.

For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor.

An alien is inadmissible if he has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude (other than a purely political offense), or if he admits having committed such crime, or if he admits committing an act which constitutes the essential elements of such crime. Section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Act.

The record shows that on June 29, 2003, in Hollywood, California, the applicant was arrested for (1) lewd or lascivious act with a child under 14, 288(a) PC, a felony; and (2) failure to appear after written promise, 853.7 PC, a misdemeanor. The applicant was subsequently indicted in the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, Case No. [REDACTED] of Count 1, lewd acts with a child under 14, 288(a) PC, a felony; and Count 2, attempted lewd conduct with a child under 14, 664-288(a) PC, a felony. On November 17, 2003, the applicant was convicted of Count 1. He was placed on probation for a period of 5 years under the condition that he serve 365 days in the county jail, pay $420 in fines and costs, and ordered to register as a sex offender per 290 PC. Count 2 was dismissed.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that his criminal case has still not been decided; therefore, he should be granted TPS. This assertion, however, is without merit. The records of the Superior Court of California clearly shows that the applicant was convicted of the felony offense of lewd acts with a child under 14.

The most commonly accepted definition of a crime involving moral turpitude is an act of baseness, vileness or depravity in the private and social duties which a man owes to his fellow men or to society in general, contrary to the accepted and customary rule of right and duty between man and man. Jordan v. De George, 341 U.S. 223, reh'g denied, 341 U.S. 956 (1951). The crime of sex offense against a child-lewd and lascivious is a crime involving moral turpitude. See Matter of Garcia, 11 I&N Dec. 521 (BIA 1966); Matter of C-, 5 I&N Dec. 65 (BIA 1953)). Therefore, the applicant is inadmissible under section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Act due to his felony conviction found to be a crime of moral turpitude.

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to his felony conviction, and because he is inadmissible to the United States under section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Act. Sections 244(c)(2)(B)(i) and 244(c)(1)(A)(iii) of the Act. Consequently, the director's decision to deny the application will be affirmed.

The record contains Form I-213, Record of Deportable/Inadmissible Alien, issued in Los Angeles, California, on November 24, 2003.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
