IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

[REDACTED]

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The application is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a native and citizen of El Salvador and was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew the applicant's TPS because he found the applicant was ineligible for TPS due to his felony conviction.

On appeal, counsel for the applicant states the director's decision was erroneous as a matter of fact and law.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted Temporary Protected Status under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1). If a decision to withdraw Temporary Protected status is entered by the AAO, the AAO shall notify the alien of the decision and the right to a de novo determination of eligibility for Temporary Protected Status in removal proceedings, if the alien is then removable. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(c).

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2, provide that an applicant who is a national of a foreign state is eligible for TPS only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national of a state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Attorney General may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 244.4; and
- (f)
  - (1) Registers for Temporary Protected Status during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or
  - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation if at the time of the initial registration period:
    - (i) The applicant is a nonimmigrant or has been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;
    - (ii) The applicant has an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal which is pending or subject to further review or appeal;

(iii) The applicant is a parolee or has a pending request for reparole; or

(iv) The applicant is a spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

An alien shall not be eligible for temporary protected status under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

8 C.F.R. § 244.1 defines “felony” and “misdemeanor:”

Felony means a crime committed in the United States, punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, except: When the offense is defined by the State as a misdemeanor and the sentence actually imposed is one year or less regardless of the term such alien actually served. Under this exception for purposes of section 244 of the Act, the crime shall be treated as a misdemeanor.

Misdemeanor means a crime committed in the United States, either

- (1) Punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or
- (2) A crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section.

For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor.

The applicant filed this application for Temporary Protected Status on April 5, 2001.

On August 2, 2005, the director sent the applicant a Notice of Intent to Withdraw (NOIW) based on the applicant's conviction of a felony DWI, and gave the applicant 30 days to respond.

The applicant did not respond. On December 7, 2005, the director withdrew the applicant's TPS based on the applicant's ineligibility due to his felony conviction in the United States.

The record reveals the following offenses in New York:

- (1) On October 6, 1996, the applicant was arrested and charged with Driving While Intoxicated. On December 11, 1996, the applicant pled guilty to this charge, a misdemeanor in the state of New York.

- (2) On August 3, 1997, the applicant was arrested and charged with Driving While Intoxicated. On October 31, 1997, the applicant pled guilty to this charge, a misdemeanor in the state of New York.
- (3) On August 4, 2001, the applicant was charged and subsequently convicted of driving while intoxicated, a felony, on October 31, 2001.
- (4) On March 29, 2003, the applicant was arrested and subsequently convicted of a second Driving While Intoxicated, a felony, on April 3, 2003.

On appeal, counsel for the applicant briefly states that the director's decision was in error, but failed to articulate a legitimate basis for this assertion, and failed to provide the final dispositions of the applicant's arrests, and failed to provide any other evidence in support of this assertion.

Going on record without supporting documentary evidence is not sufficient for purposes of meeting the burden of proof in these proceedings. Matter of Soffici, 22 I&N Dec. 158, 165 (Comm. 1998) (citing Matter of Treasure Craft of California, 14 I&N Dec. 190 (Reg. Comm. 1972)). The applicant has not articulated a legitimate basis of appeal. Court documents that were submitted by the applicant himself clearly show that the applicant pled guilty to two felony DWI offenses and two misdemeanor DWI charges, yet the only thing submitted on appeal is a statement by counsel for the applicant that the applicant is eligible. The unsupported assertions of counsel do not constitute evidence. Matter of Obaigbena, 19 I&N Dec. 533, 534 (BIA 1988); Matter of Laureano, 19 I&N Dec. 1 (BIA 1983); Matter of Ramirez-Sanchez, 17 I&N Dec. 503, 506 (BIA 1980).

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to his record of at least two felony and two misdemeanor convictions, detailed above. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw the applicant's TPS for this reason will be affirmed.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
