IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "R. Wiemann".

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center (VSC), denied the application. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed and the application declared moot.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who seeks Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

On October 12, 2006, the director denied the re-registration application because the applicant had not been previously granted TPS.

On appeal, the applicant submits documentation relating to his residence and physical presence in the United States.

CIS records reflect that, subsequent to filing the current TPS application, the Immigration Judge in Chicago, Illinois, granted the applicant's application for Cancellation of Removal under section 240A(b) of the Act and adjusted his status to that of lawful permanent residence. The Immigration Judge approved the Cancellation of Removal application on July 17, 2007. Because the alien has adjusted to lawful permanent resident status, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed based on the alien's lawful permanent resident status.
