INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

for Robert P. Wiemann, Chief Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.c. § 1254.

The director determined that the applicant failed to submit evidence to establish that she had successfully re-registered for temporary protected status during the period July 6, 2001 to July 5, 2002. The director, therefore, withdrew the applicant's temporary protected status.

On appeal, the applicant states that she mailed a copy of her pay stubs and proof of her address as requested in January 2002.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted temporary protected status under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien failed without good cause to register with the Attorney General annually within thirty (30) days before the end of each 12-month period after the granting of TPS. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14.

The application was approved by the director on November 17, 1999. On December 30, 2002, the director notified the applicant that her Temporary Protected Status would be "withdrawn unless you can submit additional evidence to show that you had registered on time or that you had a good reason for not registering", during the period July 6, 2001 to July 5, 2002. The applicant was granted 30 days to submit evidence to show that she had re-registered for TPS. The applicant failed to respond. The director determined the applicant had failed to submit evidence to establish that she had filed for re-registration during the required period and, therefore, withdrew the applicant's temporary protected status.

The applicant, on appeal, states that she had mailed a copy of her pay stubs and proof of her address as requested in January 2002. However, the applicant has not submitted any evidence to establish that she re-registered for temporary protected status during the period July 6, 2001 to July 5, 2002. Therefore, she has not overcome the findings of the director pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 244.14.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
