OFFICE: Vermont Service Center DATE: JUN 30 2008

INRE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.c. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

for Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Temporary Protected Status (TPS) application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed as moot, because the designated ofTPS for Liberia terminated on October 1,2007.

The applicant is a native and citizen ofLiberia who is seeking TPS under section 244 ofthe Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The district director denied the application because the applicant filed a TPS application on January 17,2006 and failed to establish eligibility for late registration. The director also found that the applicant failed to establish his continuous residence and continuous physical presence in the United States during the requisite periods.

Liberia was designated for TPS on October 1, 2002 (after a previous TPS designation had terminated in 1999). The initial registration period was October 2, 2002 - April 1, 2003. On August 25, 2004, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) re-designated Liberia for TPS and specified that TPS was available to Liberians who had been continuously physically present in the United States since August 25, 2004, and continuously resident in the United States since October 1, 2002. The initial registration period pursuant to the re-designation was August 25,2004 - February 21,2005. The TPS designation has been twice extended, and terminated on October 1,2007.

The designation ofLiberia for TPS was terminated effective October 1,2007.

ORDER: The application is summarily dismissed.
