APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the California Service Center. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

for Robert P. Wiemann, Chief Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be sustained.

The applicant is a citizen of Nicaragua who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The record reveals ~~that the~~ applicant filed a TPS application during the initial registration period on May 17, 1999 under CIS receipt number LIN 99 172 52565. The Director, Nebraska Service Center, approved that application on March 24, 2000. Subsequent TPS applications under CIS receipt numbers LIN 01 244 53521, LIN 02 250 50002, and LIN 03 211 .51602 were also approved on January 18,2002, June 24,2003, and July 17,2003 respectively.

The applicant filed the current Form 1-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, on December 24, 2004, and indicated that she was re-registering for TPS.

The director denied the re-registration application because he determined that the applicant's initial TPS application had been denied and the applicant was not eligible to apply for re-registration for TPS.

On appeal, the applicant states that none of her TPS applications were denied. The applicant also submits copies of approval notices for her TPS applications.

These documents, in conjunction with evidence in the record establish that the applicant's TPS applications were not denied. Consequently, the applicant is eligible for TPS re-registration.

Therefore, the director's decision will be withdrawn and the application will be approved.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. Here, the applicant has met this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is sustained.
