John F. Grissom
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's TPS was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The application is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. §1254.

The director determined that the applicant had been convicted of two misdemeanors in the United States. The director, therefore, withdrew the applicant's TPS.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted Temporary Protected Status under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8.C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

On appeal, counsel for the applicant states that the applicant's convictions are subject to vacation on procedural grounds. Counsel states that the applicant's TPS should not be revoked until a determination has been made regarding vacating the convictions.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2, provide that an applicant who is a national of a foreign state designated by the Attorney General is eligible for temporary protected status only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national, as defined in section 101(a)(21) of the Act, of a foreign state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Attorney General may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 244.4; and
- (f)
  - (1) Registers for TPS during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the Federal Register, or
  - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation, if at the time of the initial registration period:....

Section 244(c) ALIENS ELIGIBLE FOR TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS.-

(2) ELIGIBILITY STANDARDS.-

(B) ALIENS INELIGIBLE. - An alien shall not be eligible for temporary protected status under this section if the Attorney General finds that-

(i) the alien has been convicted of any felony or 2 misdemeanors committed in the United States,....

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The record reveals that on February 13, 2005, the Chelsea, Massachusetts, Police Department arrested the applicant for "Destruction of Property – Malicious," "Assault," and "Leave Scene of Property Damage."

Pursuant to a letter dated September 20, 2007, the applicant was requested to submit the final court disposition for each of the charges detailed above. In response, the applicant submitted court documentation that showed that on July 18, 2005, the applicant entered a "Guilty Plea or Admission to Sufficient Facts" to the charges of "Assault" and "Destruction of Property – Malicious." [REDACTED]. The proceedings were deferred until July 18, 2006 for completion of probation before a finding of guilt would be determined. The applicant has failed to provide any new documents incorporating any finding on July 18, 2006.

On appeal, counsel for the applicant states that the applicant's convictions are subject to vacation on procedural grounds. Counsel states that the applicant's TPS should not be revoked until a determination has been made regarding vacating the convictions. However, as of this date no evidence has been submitted to suggest that such vacature has taken place. The applicant has failed to provide sufficient evidence revealing the final court disposition of his arrest detailed above. The applicant is ineligible for temporary protected status because of his failure to provide information necessary for the adjudication of his application. 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a).

The burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that he or she meets the above requirements. The applicant's statement, on appeal, does not overcome the adverse evidence in the record. Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw the applicant's Temporary Protected Status will be affirmed.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
