John F. Grissom
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The record reveals that the applicant filed a TPS application during the initial registration period on June 25, 2001, under receipt number EAC 01 212 53335. The Director, Vermont Service Center, approved that application on November 5, 2002.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted Temporary Protected Status under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8.C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

The director withdrew temporary protected status because the applicant had failed to submit evidence necessary for the proper adjudication of the application.

On appeal, counsel for the applicant claims that the director factually and legally erred in withdrawing the applicant's TPS.

An alien shall not be eligible for temporary protected status under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

8 C.F.R. § 244.1 defines "felony" and "misdemeanor:"

Felony means a crime committed in the United States, punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, except: When the offense is defined by the State as a misdemeanor and the sentence actually imposed is one year or less regardless of the term such alien actually served. Under this exception for purposes of section 244 of the Act, the crime shall be treated as a misdemeanor.

Misdemeanor means a crime committed in the United States, either

- (1) Punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or
- (2) A crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section.

For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The record reveals the following offenses:

- (1) On April 27, 2003, the applicant was arrested by the Suffolk County, New York Police Department for "Oper MV .10 of 1% Alcohol." [REDACTED]
- (2) On February 6, 2004, the applicant was arrested by the Suffolk County, New York Police Department for "Aggravated Unlicensed Operation," "Operating MV By Unlicensed Driver," and "Operating Motor Vehicle W/O Inspection." [REDACTED]
- (3) On March 27, 2004, the applicant was arrested by the Suffolk County, New York Police Department for "Oper MV BAC .08 of 1%" and "DWI." [REDACTED]
- (4) On June 14, 2006, the applicant was arrested by the Suffolk County, New York Police Department for "Operating MV By Unlicensed Driver" and "Oper Leaves Scene of Property Damage ACC." [REDACTED]

Pursuant to a letter dated May 20, 2008, the applicant was requested to submit the final court disposition for each of the charges detailed above. The applicant failed to respond to the notice.

The director withdrew temporary protected status because the applicant had failed to submit evidence necessary for the proper adjudication of the application.

On appeal, counsel for the applicant claims that the director factually and legally erred in withdrawing the applicant's TPS. According to counsel, the applicant was prima facie eligible for TPS and has not been convicted of two misdemeanors or a felony. Counsel contends that the applicant has only been convicted of one misdemeanor and violations. Counsel also provides the requested final court dispositions.

According to the dispositions provided by counsel, on September 4, 2003, the applicant was convicted of "Operating MV by Unlicensed Driver" and "Driving While Ability Impaired," both misdemeanors; on February 6, 2004, the applicant pled guilty to and was convicted of "Operating MV by Unlicensed Driver," a misdemeanor; on June 15, 2004, the applicant pled guilty to and was convicted of "Operate Motor vehicle with .08 of 1% Alcohol," a misdemeanor; and on June 14, 2006, the applicant pled guilty to and was convicted of a speeding violation. The applicant is ineligible for TPS because of his misdemeanors convictions. Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw the applicant's Temporary Protected Status will be affirmed.

Furthermore, it is noted that the applicant has provided insufficient evidence to establish his qualifying continuous residence since February 13, 2001 and continuous physical presence from March 9, 2001 to the filing date of the TPS application. It is also noted that although the applicant has submitted a copy of a birth certificate with English translation, it was not accompanied by a passport or any national identity document from the alien's country of origin bearing photo and/or fingerprint to establish his nationality and identity. Therefore, the application must be denied for these reasons as well.

The application will be denied for the above stated reasons, with each considered as an independent and alternative basis for denial. An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
