Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The record reveals that the applicant filed a TPS application during the initial registration period on March 18, 2002, under receipt number EAC 02 143 52016. The Director, Vermont Service Center, approved that application on November 15, 2002.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted Temporary Protected Status under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8.C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

The director withdrew temporary protected status because the applicant had failed to submit evidence necessary for the proper adjudication of the application.

An alien shall not be eligible for temporary protected status under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

8 C.F.R. § 244.1 defines "felony" and "misdemeanor:"

Felony means a crime committed in the United States, punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, except: When the offense is defined by the State as a misdemeanor and the sentence actually imposed is one year or less regardless of the term such alien actually served. Under this exception for purposes of section 244 of the Act, the crime shall be treated as a misdemeanor.

Misdemeanor means a crime committed in the United States, either:

- (1) Punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or
- (2) A crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section.

For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The record reveals the following offenses:

- (1) On March 12, 2006, the applicant was arrested by the Reading, Pennsylvania Police Department and subsequently charged with two counts of aggravated assault, simple assault, recklessly endangering another person, possessing instruments of crime, harassment, and disorderly conduct.

Pursuant to a notice dated October 7, 2008, the applicant was requested to submit the final court disposition for each of the charges detailed above. The applicant failed to provide the final court documents.

The director withdrew temporary protected status because the applicant had failed to submit evidence necessary for the proper adjudication of the application.

On appeal, counsel for the applicant claims that the applicant was convicted of possessing instruments of crime and was placed on probation for simple assault. Counsel provides the final court dispositions for the charges listed above. According to the court documents, on March 27, 2008, the applicant was convicted of possessing instruments of crime, a violation of 18 PA CSA section 907(a), a misdemeanor in the 1st degree, and sentenced to commitment in county prison for not less than 11 ½ months nor more than 23 months. On that date, the applicant was also convicted of simple assault, a violation of 18 PA C.S.A. section 2701(a)(1), a misdemeanor in the 2nd degree, and placed on probation for two years. The remaining charges were dismissed

The applicant is ineligible for TPS because of his misdemeanor convictions.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
