DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant had been convicted of at least two misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the applicant does not have two misdemeanor convictions as the driving without license conviction was reduced to an infraction. Counsel asserts, "a reduction under California Penal Code 17(d) does not amount to a Pickering Issue in that a reduction under above stated code is a procedural tool that by operation of law renders no immigration barring consequences."

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The record reveals the applicant's criminal history in the state of California as follows:

1. On December 9, 2000, the applicant was arrested and subsequently charged with avoid a registration compliance, a violation of section 4462.5 VC, and unlicensed driver, a violation of 12500(a) VC. On October 24, 2001, the applicant was convicted of violating section 12500(a) VC, a misdemeanor. The applicant was ordered to pay a fine and was placed on probation for three years. The remaining charge was dismissed. On May 27, 2008, on behalf of the applicant, counsel submitted a motion to reduce the misdemeanor conviction to an infraction pursuant to section 17(d) PC. On May 28, 2008, the motion was granted. [REDACTED] no. [REDACTED]
