Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant had failed to submit requested court documentation relating to his criminal record.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that the felony drug charges were dropped because it did not relate to him. The applicant submits copies of the court documents that were previously provided.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Felony" means a crime committed in the United States punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year, regardless of the term actually served, if any. There is an exception when the offense is defined by the state as a misdemeanor and the sentence actually imposed is one year or less, regardless of the term actually served. Under this exception, for purposes of 8 C.F.R. § 244 of the Act, the crime shall be treated as a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

An alien is inadmissible if he has been convicted of, or admits having committed, or admits committing acts which constitute the essential elements of a violation of (or a conspiracy to violate) any law or regulation of a State, the United States, or a foreign country relating to a controlled substance (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act, 21 USC § 802). Section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) of the Act.

The record reflects that on June 17, 2007, the applicant was arrested by the Sheriff's Office in Moore County, North Carolina for violating GS 90-95(a), possession with intent to sell/deliver marijuana, GS 90-95(d)(4), possession of marijuana, and GS 90-95(d)(4) possession of marijuana up to a half ounce. On September 17, 2007, the district attorney dismissed without leave the charge of violating GS 90-95(a). The applicant was convicted of a lesser charge of violating GS 90-95(d)(4). Case no. [REDACTED]

On, May 15, 2009, a Notice of Intent to Withdraw TPS was issued, which requested the applicant to submit certified court judgments for his arrest on June 17, 2007. The applicant, in response asserted, "I am sending my criminal records that show that the felonies I was charged with were dropped because the marijuana belonged to the person I was riding with and were found in his vehicle." The applicant submitted certified court documents from the Moore County General Court, regarding a leash law violation that occurred on three separate occasions in September 2004.

On July 8, 2009, the director withdrew TPS because the applicant had failed to submit requested court documentation relating to his arrest on September 17, 2007.

On appeal, the applicant once again asserts that the drug charges were dropped as they did not relate to him. However, the applicant has not provided any credible evidence from either the Sheriff's Office or the Moore County General Court to support his assertion. Simply going on record without supporting documentary evidence is not sufficient for purposes of meeting the burden of proof in these proceedings. Matter of Soffici, 22 I&N Dec. 158, 165 (Comm. 1998) (citing Matter of Treasure Craft of California, 14 I&N Dec. 190 (Reg. Comm. 1972)).

The applicant is ineligible for TPS because of his failure to provide information necessary for the adjudication of his application. 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a). Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
