Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn and an application for re-registration was simultaneously denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant failed to submit the requested court dispositions.¹

On appeal, counsel asserted, "due to budget cuts, the court have restricted hours and have black out days. The post conviction relief filed was unable to be heard in the time frame requested and evidence requested was unable to be provided." Counsel indicated that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. However, more than seven months later, no additional correspondence has been presented by counsel or the applicant.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for the withdrawal of TPS. The applicant through counsel has failed to provide any evidence relevant to overcome the director's findings. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
