Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant failed to submit all the requested court dispositions relating to his criminal history.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the applicant's failure to obtain and send the charging record from the court was by no fault of the applicant because the court, at the time, did not have or could not produce the judgment sheet. Counsel submits the requested court documentation.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for temporary protected status under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

On December 22, 2008, the director issued a Notice of Intent to Withdraw TPS, which advised the applicant to submit certified court documents for his two arrests in Prince William County, Virginia for driving while intoxicated.

The applicant, in response, submitted court documents in [REDACTED] which reflects that on May 5, 2008, the applicant violated section 18.2-266/18.2-270, driving while intoxicated, a Class 1 misdemeanor. On June 17, 2008, the applicant pled guilty to the offense. The applicant was sentenced to serve 90 days in jail, ordered to pay a fine and was placed on probation for one year.

On appeal, counsel submits the remaining court documents from the Prince William County Criminal Court, which reflects that on September 2, 2001, the applicant violated section 13-240, operate a motor vehicle with .08 percent or more alcohol in the blood, a misdemeanor. On October 3, 2001, the applicant pled guilty to the offense. The applicant was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail and ordered to pay a fine. [REDACTED]

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to his two misdemeanor convictions. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). Counsel's statements made on appeal have been considered. Nevertheless, there is no waiver available, even for humanitarian reasons, of the requirements stated above. Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
