Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant had been convicted of at least two misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, counsel asserts that no action should be taken until the applicant's completes his probation as it would force the applicant to be in violation of his probation.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for temporary protected status under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The FBI report dated March 17, 2008, reflects that on September 3, 2006, the applicant was arrested by the Suffolk County Police Department of New York for aggravated unlicensed operation of a motor vehicle, and driving while intoxicated.

In response to the Notice of Intent to Withdraw TPS issued on March 18, 2008, the applicant submitted court documentation which revealed that on November 14, 2006, the applicant was convicted of operating motor vehicle under the influence of drug or alcohol, a violation of VTL 1192.3, a Class U misdemeanor, and aggravated unlicensed operator of a motor vehicle in the 2nd degree, a violation of VTL 511.2, a Class U misdemeanor. On January 23, 2007, the applicant was sentenced to serve 45 days of imprisonment for each offense, his drivers license was revoked for six months and he was placed on probation for three years.

Counsel cites no statute or regulation that compels U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services to hold the adjudication of the appeal in abeyance while the applicant is on probation.

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to his two misdemeanor convictions. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal from the withdrawal of the TPS application is dismissed.
