The specific requirements for filing such a request can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. All motions must be submitted to the Nebraska Service Center by filing a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion. DISCUSSION: The application for Temporary Protected Status was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The case will be remanded for further consideration and action

The applicant claims to be a citizen of Haiti who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director determined that the applicant was deemed inadmissible under section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Act. The applicant was provided the opportunity to file a Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility or evidence establishing that a Form I-601 had been previously filed. The applicant, however, failed to submit the waiver application. On June 2, 2010, the director denied the application after determining that the applicant had abandoned his application by failing to submit a Form I-601.

If all requested initial evidence and requested additional evidence is not submitted by the required date, the application or petition shall be considered abandoned and, accordingly, shall be denied. 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(13). A denial due to abandonment may not be appealed, but an applicant or petitioner may file a motion to reopen. 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(15).

The director, in her Notice of Decision, advised the applicant that while the decision could not be appealed, the applicant could file a motion to reopen within 30 days. The applicant responded to the director's decision on June 14, 2010. The director erroneously accepted the applicant's response as an appeal instead of a motion to reopen and forwarded the file to the AAO. However, as the director's decision was based on abandonment, the AAO has no jurisdiction over this case. Therefore, the case will be remanded and the director shall consider the applicant's response as a motion to reopen.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The case is remanded to the director for further action consistent with the above and entry of a decision.
