Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status (TPS) was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. A subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The matter is now before the AAO again on a motion to reopen and reconsider. The motion will be dismissed and the previous decision of the AAO will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The record reveals that the applicant filed a TPS application during the initial registration period on September 4, 2002. The Director, Texas Service Center, approved that application on April 12, 2003.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8.C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant had been convicted of two misdemeanors.

Upon review of the record of proceeding, the AAO concurred with the director's conclusion and dismissed the appeal on May 4, 2010.

The applicant indicated that he is filing an appeal, however, a decision was rendered on his appeal on May 4, 2010. Therefore, the AAO will treat the I-290B as a motion to reopen and reconsider.

A motion to reopen must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding, and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2). A motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(4).

The applicant's motion to reopen consists of a statement in which he states that he is not contradicting the decision, but requests that the decision be reconsidered. The applicant again apologizes for his previous wrongdoings and requests that his TPS be reinstated so that he can support his family. The applicant submits evidence in an attempt to establish his continuous residence and continuous physical presence in the United States during the qualifying period. The applicant also submits copies of the final court dispositions for his criminal convictions which had previously been provided. As such, the issue on which the underlying decisions were based has not been overcome on motion.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. That burden has not been met since the applicant has not provided any new facts or additional evidence to overcome the previous decision of the AAO. Accordingly, the motion to reopen will be dismissed and the previous decision of the AAO will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The motion to reopen is dismissed. The previous decision of the AAO is affirmed.
