IN RE: Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

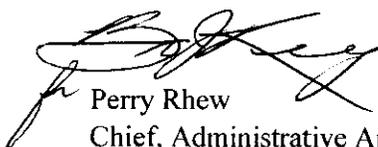

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the California Service Center. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied by us in reaching our decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen. The specific requirements for filing such a request can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. All motions must be submitted to the California Service Center by filing a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $585. Please be aware that 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i) requires that any motion must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider or reopen.

Thank you,

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a native and citizen of Haiti who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application because the applicant had been convicted of a felony in the United States.

On appeal, counsel for the applicant acknowledges the felony conviction, but requests that the applicant be allowed to apply for a waiver as the earthquake affected many of her relatives who count on her financial support. Counsel submits a Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility, and a Form EOIR-26A, Fee Waiver Request

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

“Felony” means a crime committed in the United States punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year, regardless of the term actually served, if any. There is an exception when the offense is defined by the state as a misdemeanor and the sentence actually imposed is one year or less, regardless of the term actually served. Under this exception, for purposes of 8 C.F.R. § 244 of the Act, the crime shall be treated as a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The record reflects on December 2, 2002, the applicant attempted to enter the United States with a fraudulent U.S. passport. On February 13, 2003, the applicant was convicted in the United States District Court, Southern Division of Florida of use of an altered passport, a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1543, a felony. [REDACTED]

The record reflects that a removal hearing was held on June 11, 2003, and the applicant was ordered removed from the United States pursuant to sections 212(a)(6)(C)(ii) and (7)(A)(i)(I) of the Act. The applicant appealed the immigration judge’s (IJ) decision to the Board of Immigration Appeals. On September 22, 2003, the BIA, affirmed, without opinion, the IJ’s decision.

It is noted that counsel submits Forms I-601 and EOIR-26A on appeal; however, the AAO does not have authority to adjudicate these applications.

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to her felony conviction. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). Consequently, the director’s decision to deny the application for this reason will be affirmed.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
