DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a native and citizen of Haiti who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application because she found that the applicant had failed to submit all of the requested court documentation relating to his criminal record.

On appeal, the applicant does not address the basis for the denial of his application. The applicant indicates at Part 2 on the appeal form that a brief and/or additional evidence is attached. A thorough review of the record, however, reveals no brief and/or evidence was submitted with the Form I-290B. To date, no additional correspondence has been presented. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

While not the basis for the summarily dismissal of the appeal, it is noted that the record reflects that a Form I-862, Notice to Appear, was served on the applicant on June 18, 1997. A removal hearing was held on November 12, 1997, and the alien was ordered removed in absentia.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
