DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a citizen of Haiti who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish he had: 1) continuously resided in the United States since January 12, 2010; and 2) been continuously physically present in the United States since January 21, 2010.

On appeal, the applicant acknowledges he entered the United States after January 12, 2010. The applicant asserts, "I have been granted of Temporary Protected Status and employment Authorization in order to help myself and back home." The applicant submits additional documents in support of his appeal.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2, provide that an applicant who is a national of a foreign state as designated by the Attorney General, now the Secretary, Department of Homeland Security (Secretary), is eligible for TPS only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national of a state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Secretary may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 244.4; and
- (f)
  - (1) Registers for Temporary Protected Status during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or
  - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation if at the time of the initial registration period:
    - (i) The applicant is a nonimmigrant or has been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;

- (ii) The applicant has an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal which is pending or subject to further review or appeal;
- (iii) The applicant is a parolee or has a pending request for reparole; or
- (iv) The applicant is a spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

The term continuously physically present, as defined in 8 C.F.R. § 244.1, means actual physical presence in the United States for the entire period specified in the regulations. An alien shall not be considered to have failed to maintain continuous physical presence in the United States by virtue of brief, casual, and innocent absences as defined within this section.

The term continuously resided, as defined in 8 C.F.R. § 244.1, means residing in the United States for the entire period specified in the regulations. An alien shall not be considered to have failed to maintain continuous residence in the United States by reason of a brief, casual and innocent absence as defined within this section or due merely to a brief temporary trip abroad required by emergency or extenuating circumstances outside the control of the alien.

Persons applying for TPS offered to Haitians must demonstrate continuous residence in the United States since January 12, 2010, and continuous physical presence in the United States since January 21, 2010.

The burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that he or she meets the above requirements. Applicants shall submit all documentation as required in the instructions or requested by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a). The sufficiency of all evidence will be judged according to its relevancy, consistency, credibility, and probative value. To meet his or her burden of proof the applicant must provide supporting documentary evidence of eligibility apart from his or her own statements. 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(b).

Along with his TPS application, the applicant submitted a copy of the biographical page of his Haitian passport and his birth certificate with English translation. The applicant also submitted a copy of his Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, which reflected he was admitted into the United States on January 20, 2010, as a nonimmigrant visitor.

On June 17, 2010, the applicant was requested to submit evidence establishing his continuous residence since January 12, 2010 and continuous physical presence in the United States since January 21, 2010, to the date of filing. The applicant was informed that if he had a brief, casual, and innocent absence from the United States during this period, or a brief temporary trip abroad required by emergency or extenuating circumstances outside his control, he was to submit evidence to support the absence. The applicant, in response, provided additional copies of documents that were previously submitted with his TPS application along with a copy of the U.S. birth certificate for his daughter who was born on October 3, 2007.

The director determined that the applicant had not established continuous residence in the United States since January 12, 2010 and continuous physical presence since January 21, 2010. The director also determined that the applicant's failure to maintain continuous physical presence and residence was not due to brief, casual and innocent absence or a brief temporary trip abroad required by emergency or extenuating circumstances beyond his control. Accordingly, on August 4, 2010, the director denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant submits additional copies of documents that were previously provided along with:

- A copy of his Florida Learner Permit issued on July 15, 2010.
- An envelope postmarked April 23, 2010, and addressed to the applicant in Elmont, New York.
- A copy of the biographical page of his U.S. visa issued on January 19, 2010, in Port Au Prince, Haiti. The visa was issued in order for the applicant to escort his daughter who is a U.S. citizen.
- A copy of his employment authorization card and social security card issued on June 1, 2010.
- A copy of his daughter's U.S. passport.

The fact that the applicant was granted employment authorization is not evidence that he was approved TPS. Based upon filing of the Form I-821 application for TPS, an applicant is afforded temporary treatment benefits and is issued employment authorization upon establishing prima facie eligibility<sup>1</sup> for TPS pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 244.5(b). As provided in 8 C.F.R. § 244.13(a), temporary treatment benefits terminate upon a final determination with respect to the alien's eligibility for TPS.

The applicant has submitted sufficient evidence to establish continuous physical presence in the United States since January 21, 2010. However, the applicant arrived in the United States subsequent to the eligibility period for continuous residence. Therefore, he cannot meet the criteria for continuous residence in the United States since January 12, 2010, as described in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(c). The AAO is bound by the clear language of the statute and lacks the authority to change the statute. Consequently, the director's decision to deny the application for TPS will be affirmed.

<sup>1</sup> Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 244.1, prima facie means eligibility established with the filing of a completed application for TPS containing factual information that if un rebutted will establish a claim of eligibility under section 244 of the Act.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
